Use Ice Every Day for Health and Economy
Our Free Booklet Tells Why

Year 'Round
Kitchen Heat
Demands Ice
The Year
'Round

You have found Ice an economy in Summer. It is economical in Winter, too. Housekeeping without ice is dangerous to health, inconvenient and extravagant.

Ice is a household necessity every day in the year, because kitchens are so warm in Winter as in Summer—always above the temperature at which food can remain sweet and wholesome. Ice alone will keep food in prime condition till every scrap is used.

"GUA NE FAT TOY!" NO SABC? IT'S NEW YEAR IN CHINATOWN

Police and the Tongs Are Both
Ready for Big Night
To-Night.

"Gua ne fat toy."
You sabc? You no sabc? Allee same Melicos man Happy New Year. To-night's the night for the merry chink in Joss house and cafe, in the market place and the highways and byways of Chinatown. Merchant princes, resplendent in silks and satin robes, laundrymen in old gold and lavender, little-footed women in gorgeous attire, peddlers, cobblers, fishermen, pipe menders and pipe smokers will all hail the dawn of the New Year of Confucius at the stroke of midnight.

This is the time of year when every Chinaman calls it off with his creditors. He pays his bills and is ready for the new year with a clear conscience and a clean sheet. Then the wine pops and the firecracker pops, and sometimes the pistol pops.

Extraordinary preparations are being made by the Chinese for their celebration. Extraordinary preparations are also being made by the police. In a time like this, when the wine is flowing, when the crackers are popping and the beat of good feeling is running rampant, the bang of a forty-five may start a survival of the fittest among the tongs.

So the police are taking no chances to-day. There will be no shooting of firecrackers if they know it. Under cover of the noise of the firecracker the highbinder has got in his deadliest work. It has been the custom of the Chinese to go calling. When they get in front of the house of a friend, it is the habit to drop a bunch of firecrackers and greet the friend with: "Ho say kai la," meaning good luck.

If you have a friend in the Chinese quarter, or a Chinaman you want to greet in his own tongue, be careful you don't say:

"Mo say kai la," for that means bad luck.

The dropping of the firecrackers has been the signal, on more occasions than one, for the tong man to start the war. The noise of the crackers disguises the roar of the revolver and bullets go spitting where greetings were being muttered.

Dr. Fong, President of the Hip Sing tong, has assured the police the whang of the gun will not lend variety to the celebration to-night. President Wong Jo, of the On Leong tong, has declared the hiss of the highbinder's bullet will not hinder the merriment. But for all that, the police are on the job. Lieut. John Burke ("Hop Hov"), with a squad of men, to-day marched Chinatown for firecrackers and guns. Inspector Wakefield was on guard with a number of uniformed men and the police will watch Chinatown for the next three or four days.

KILLED TWO BROTHERS, NEGRO TELLS POLICE

Forced to Dance at Pistol Point, He Says He Shot Alonzo and Horace Gardner.

ELIZABETHTON, Tenn., Feb. 12.—Clyde Stover, the negro arrested here Wednesday as a suspect in connection with the murder near Welaka, Fla., of Alonzo G. Gardner of North Adams, Mass., confessed early to-day, according to Sheriff Ausbrooks, that he killed Gardner and also his brother, Horace B. Gardner of Springfield, Mass., who is missing.

The negro, who piloted a yacht for the brothers on a camping trip, shot them in the back, the alleged confession said, because they forced him to dance at the point of a gun. One was shot, the negro is alleged to have confessed, as he was butchering a pig some distance from the camp. The other was killed, he said, a short time later at another place.

WIDOW DIES AT CONCERT.

Wealthy Mrs. Van Vleet Succumbs to Heart Disease.

Mrs. Clinton Van Vleet, widow of the former President of the Goodyear Rubber Company, who died a year ago, died suddenly in the social rooms of the Bay-side Methodist Church at Bay-side, L. I., during a concert last night.

Mrs. Van Vleet, who was one of the wealthiest residents of Douglaston, went to the concert accompanied by her niece, Miss Jennie Stensley. Shortly after the programme began she complained of being ill.

The Rev. Victor G. Mills sent a hurry call for Dr. Charles Storey, who lives in the neighborhood, but when the physician arrived he found Mrs. Van Vleet dead. Heart disease is believed to have caused her death.

TEN THOUSAND BIRDS AT THE POULTRY SHOW.

The annual poultry show opened to-day in Madison Square Garden. There are on exhibition ten thousand of the feathered tribe from twenty-six States. The staple standard breeds are in the majority. The fancy Plymouth Rocks, Wyandottes, Brahmas and Leghorns are features of the show this year. In an artificial lake are seen wild fowl from many parts of the world. The homing pigeons, carrying messages to President Wilson and ex-President Taft, were released shortly after 10 o'clock.

FIRE NEAR NEWSPAPER ROW.

A smoky fire which started in the basement of the five-story left building at No. 18 Frankfort Street early this morning caused considerable excitement in Printers' Row and filled the Tribune and World offices with a stifling smoke. It required a half-hour for the firemen to stifle the flames and smoke. The damage was estimated at $2,000. The cause of the blaze is unknown.
